Aside from his alerthese in this instance*Holland mace the hit that resulted in Roanoke's first run, and by his elevernese in left field, when he got Ison's long drive in the first inning, prevented Richmond from making runs, which, as it turned out, would have been sufficient to tie the score.

A tie would have put the Tigers just thaif a game ahead of Norfolk, and if the visitors and lost, the two teams would have the same percentage.

The game was one of the most intensely interesting seen on the grounds here this year, and the interest was increased by the fact that long before the result of the game here could be known, the result of the Norfolk.

Portsmouth game was posted before the spectators. The two teams shared equally in the applause, and the send-ment for pennant honors, judging from demonstrations, seems locally to be divided equally between Roanoke and Norfolk.

Richmond did not play in usual form, although the context was closely fought throughout, and was marked saided from brilliant fielding, by the determination of the visitors to ade another notch to their string of victories. The Coits lacked the snap and ginger displayed by Shaughnessy and his Highlanders, and this alone accounts for the result. Several times a little headwork or a little faster base running would have given Lipe's men a chance either to tie up the score or else to win out.

Many Chances to Score.

Touchstone, who made his first appearance of the season on the Richmond grounds, allowed seven hits, and gave three passes, while Hale, who started in for Richmond, allowed only five safeties in the seven innings and in the eighth and ninth only one visitor—Holland—reached first base. Danville took both ends of the double-Danville took both ends of the double-header here to-day, which closed the season of the Virginia League in Dan-ville. The Red Sox play the last game in Lynchbugg to-morrow. The victory in the first game was due to the magnificent twirling of Russell, for Danville. He had the visitors guessing at every stage of the contest, and but for an error behind him would have se-cured a shut-out, which he was en-titled to. Moser, for the visitors, pitched rather an indifferent game, and the five runs secured were due to the bunching of hits. The second game was a pretty con-test, in which Mayberry had the best

PITTSBURG, PA., September 10.—
Pittsburg won from Cincinnati to-day,
4 to 2. To-day's game was the result of the protest of Cincinnati regarding the game won by Pittsburg on April 23 being allowed. The feature of the contest was Wagner's scoring from second base on Miller's sacrifice hunt in the sixth inning. A base on

Men's doubles—Tyler and Buford vs. Blair and Blair; Winston and partner vs. Coke and Mullen; Valentine and Michaels vs. Rice and Blair, and Cooke and Lindsey, bye.

The tournament is the last of the Beason, and interest in it is keen, as it decided the club championships in tennis for 1909. It also entities the winners to the trophy cups offered each year to the club champions, and to have their names engraved on the cups kept permanently at the club. It is open only to club members, which renders the fivalry more Reen.

The tournament was scheduled to begin yesterday, but the rain prevented. The matches will begin promptly, an order to risky off at least two rounds. The best two of three sets will be played in all matches except the finals. In which the best three out of nya will determine the wilners.

contest was pretty and replete with brilliant fielding.

While Norfolk seemingly took a substantial lead early in the game, the Truckers made a strong bid for it in the ninth, and as a result the final outcome was in doubt until the last man up, Wolf, who had already hit safe three times, swung viciously at the ball and dropped an easy grounder to Volz that ended the agony.

There was considerable kicking on the part of the Truckers to the work of Pender, especially as to balls and strikes, and finally Catcher Smith was chased from the grounds. Umpire Pender ruled that it was too late to undertake to play a second game.

DETROIT, MICH., September 10.—
Both games of to-day's double-header with Cleveland were won by Detroit, one being a close and finely played contest, the other a one-sided affair. Delehanty won the first game on a remarkable one-hand stop, with the bases full, in the second inning. After that Mullin was almost invincible. Young pitched well, but hits were bunched on him twice, costing the game. Works, a colt, held Cleveland to two hits, one a scratch, in the second game. Upp was hit hard and poorly supported. Every Detroit run was made after two were out. Delehanty's batting featured. The score:

Honnoke has a much tougher proposition in playing Richmond than the Tars will encounter with Portsmouth, and the announcement made by Manager Lipe last night that he will use his star pitchers—Revelle and Edmundston—is proof that the Colts are going into the contests this afternoon to win the last two games. The first game will be called at 2:30 o'clock, and the second will begin fifteen minutes after the end of the first. If Roanoke should drop one of the games, and Norfolk should win both, the two teams will be tied in the race, and a post-season series will be played in order to determine which team is entitled to the championship.

It is not known where the series will be played, but the suggestion has been made that Richmond will be the logical place. Roanoke must lose both games in order to be beaten out in the race.

It is not known expect for a brief

It is not known, expect for a brief dispatch that there was not time to finish the second game, why the second game in Norfolk was not played yesterday. The opinion here is that Clarke was too wise to run the risk of dropping one game in three, as to do so would have lessened his chances of winning or tying up the standing.

Two Little Girls had Eczema Very Badly-In One Case Child's Hair Came Out and Left Bare Patches - Father's Head Sore from Childhood-In All Three Cases

CUTICURA MET WITH ITS USUAL SUCCESS

"I have two little girls who have been troubled very badly with eczema. One of them had it oh her lower limbs. I did everything that I could hear of for her, but it did not give in until warm weather when it seemingly subsided. The next winter when it became cold weather the eczema started again and also in her head where it would take the hair out and leave bare patches as large as a quarter of a dollar. At the same time her arms were sore the whole length of them. I took her to a physician and he said that she had two distinct types of eczema. I continued with him for several weeks and the child grew worse all of the time. Her sister's arms were also affected in the same way. My husband came home one day with a box of Cuticura Soap. I began using them and also the Cuticura Pills and by the time the second lot was used their skin was soft and smooth as it had not been before for the winter. We keep the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment constantly by us and when any little roughness or irritation appears on their skin I quickly dispel it with the Cuticura Remedies. My husband has used them with most satisfactory results for a sore head which has troubled him from childhood. Mrs. Charles Baker, Albion, Me., Sept. 21, 1908."

Cutioura Ointment is one of the most successful remedies for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, of infants, children and adults, ever compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with it, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed by mild doses of Cuticura Pills, is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning and scaly humors, eczemas, 'rritations and inflammations, permit rest and sleep and point to a speedy cure when all else fails.

Cuticura Soap (25a.) Ointment (bic.), Resolvent (80c.), and Chocolate Obasted Pills (15c.), are sold throughout the world. Fother Drug & Chem Corp., Sols Frops. 157 Collimbia Ave., Bestin Diseases, arritation Free, Cuticura Book on Skin Diseases, Golf Finals Will Be Played To-Day Between Egan and Gardner.

ILL. September 10 .- Another day of heart-breaking golf saw the elimination of Western Champion Charles Evans, Jr., and Mason E. Phelps, the Midlothian youth, in the struggle for the national amateur golf champion-

To-morrow H. Chandler Egan, of the championship.

Egan disposed of Evans, after a struggle that ended spectacularly at the thirty-sixth hole, the Edgewater youngster topping his drive into the bunker, the one really bad drive he made in his long uphili struggle. The Gardner-Phelps match also went to the home green, but Gardner's advantage was one hole better, as he was one up, playing for the last hole and cinched the match by a perfect four, making him two up at the finish.

Gardner was two up on the morning round, and Phelps, handicapped by a badly blistered right hand, was unable him two up at the finish.

Gardner was two up on the morning round, and Phelps, handleapped by a badly blistered right hand, was unable to overcome the handleap in the atternoon. He did, indeed, square the match at the tenth hole and at the fourteenth was one up, the only time during the game that he was in the lead. Gardner squared the match at the next hole, and won the thirty-fifth and thirty-sixth in par fours.

But the Egan-Evans match attracted the gallery, and the 600 or 700 golf enthusiasts who trudged around the long course in the wake of the former national champion and his youthful opponent were well rewarded.

Evans, who was apparently hopelessly outclassed in the morning play, made one of the gamest up-hill struggles in the afternoon ever seen in a national tournament. Three times he squared the match, the first time at the twenty-third hole, again at the twenty-seventh and again at the thirty-second. Egan broke ladly in the first nine holes of the afternoon play, taking forty-two golfar out, the highest score he has made during the week. Evans, on the other hand, made a pretty thirty-eight, winning two holes by putts of nearly twenty feet each, but Egan turned through loose threes on the tenth, eleventh and tweith holes, giving him an advantage he needed in the later play.

Egan, who twice has carried off national championship honors, is the favorite in to-morrow's match with Gardner, whose golf, with the eyecution of his disastrous ninth hole, has been of championship callbre. Gardner, who is champion of the Yale track team, is but nineteen years old, and has never before been prominent in golf tournament experience may tell heavily against him to-morrow.

ROANOKE, VA., September 10.—The Roanoke Club has protested the transferring of games scheduled to be played in Portsmouth to Norfolk. This, according to the league constitution, cannot be done without the consent of two-thirds of the members of the league, or by the approval of the president.

E. N. Gregory, of Richmond, has sent out notices that the game of September 11 had been transferred by
